Section 5.2. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the members of the Association shall be held during the annual conference of the Association, for the purpose of transacting such business as may properly be brought before the meeting.

Section 5.3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the members, for any purpose or purposes, unless otherwise prescribed by statute or by the Articles of Incorporation, may be called by the President or the Board of Directors. Special meetings may not be called by the members.

Section 5.4. Quorum. Five percent of all members entitled to vote at any meeting shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of the members; provided, however, in the election of officers and/or Regular At-Large Directors, 5% of all Regular Members shall constitute a quorum for such election and in the election of the Associate At-Large Director, 5% of all Associate Members shall constitute a quorum. Except as specifically set forth in these Bylaws or as required by the Illinois Act, the act of a majority of the Regular Members (or, in the case of the election of the Association At-Large Director, Associate Members) at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the members.

Section 5.5. Notice of Meetings, Annual or Special.

A. Written notice of each meeting of the members stating the place, if any, the date and hour of such meeting, and the means of remote communications, if any, by which members may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such meetings, and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes of such meeting, shall be given either personally or by mail to each member of record entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than five nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting (except in the case of a removal of one or more directors, a merger, consolidation, dissolution or sale, lease or exchange of assets, the notice shall be given not less than 20 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting). If mailed, notice is given when deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, directed to the member at his or her address as it appears on the records of the Association.

B. Written notice shall include notice by electronic transmission. Notice given by a form of electronic transmission shall be deemed given: (a) if by facsimile telecommunication, when directed to a number at which the member has consented to receive notice; (b) if by electronic mail, when directed to an electronic mail address at which the member has consented to receive notice; (c) if by a posting on an electronic network together with separate notice to the member of such specific posting, upon the later of (i) such posting and (ii) the giving of such separate notice; and (d) if by any other form of electronic transmission, when directed to the member.

C. When a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place, if any, thereof, and the means of remote communications, if any, by which members may be deemed to be present in person and vote at such adjourned meeting are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken. If the adjournment is for more than 30 days, or if after the adjournment a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting, a notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given to each member of record entitled to vote at the meeting.

Section 5.6. Waiver of Notice. Whenever a member shall be entitled to notice under any provision of these Bylaws, the Articles of Incorporation, or the Illinois Act, a written waiver thereof, signed by the member entitled to notice, or a waiver by electronic transmission by the member, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to notice. Attendance of a member at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when a member attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 5.7. Mail Ballot.

A. Any action to be taken at any annual or special meeting of the members, may be taken by written ballot without a meeting by mail, electronic mail, or any other electronic transmission pursuant to which the members entitled to vote thereon are given the opportunity to vote for or against the proposed action, and the action receives approval by a majority of the members casting votes, or such larger number as may be required by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or the Illinois Act, provided that the number of members casting votes would constitute a quorum if such action had been taken at a meeting. Voting must remain open for not less than five days from the date the ballot is delivered; provided, however, in the case of a removal of one or more directors, a merger, consolidation, dissolution or sale, lease or exchange of assets, the voting must remain open for not less than 20 days from the date the ballot is delivered.

B. Such informal action by members shall become effective only if, at least five days prior to the effective date of such informal action, a notice in writing of the proposed action is delivered to all of the members entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof.

Section 5.8. Proxies. Members shall not be permitted to vote by proxy.

Section 5.9. Meeting by Voice Communication Technologies. Subject to any guidelines and procedures adopted by the Board of Directors, members not physically present at a meeting of members may participate in a meeting of the members by means of conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting by use of such equipment shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 5.10. Definition of "Electronic Transmission". As used throughout these Bylaws, the phrase "electronic transmission" means any form of communication not directly involving the physical transmission of paper, that creates a record that may be retained, retrieved, and reviewed by a recipient thereof, and that may be directly reproduced in paper form by such a recipient through an automated process.

Section 6.3. Term of Office.

A. The Regular At-Large Directors shall be divided into three classes, with each class consisting of three directors and serving for a term of three years, with the term of office of one class expiring each year. Each year, candidates for Regular At-Large Director shall be placed in positions numbered 1, 2, and 3 by the nominating committee, with said positions representing three general geographic areas. The ballot shall contain a blank space for each position for write-in votes.

B. The Associate At-Large Director shall serve for a three-year term.

C. D. Whenever any officer or director separates from the employment that made the individual eligible for membership, the individual must re-certify that he or she is eligible for the appropriate membership category within 120 days of such separation or the individual's membership shall be deemed terminated and the position held by such individual will be deemed vacant.

E. Individuals shall not be eligible to serve as a Regular At-Large Director or an Associate At-Large Director unless there have been at least three years between any prior service on the Board of Directors except in cases where the individual is appointed to fill a vacancy.

Section 6.4. Board Meetings.

A. Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such place within or without the State of Illinois as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

B. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held in January each year. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held at any time upon call of the President or upon the request of a majority of the Board of Directors, and upon such call, the Executive Director shall provide notice and, within five business days, verify to the person(s) calling the meeting that notice was sent.

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be held upon not less than two days' written notice of the time, place, and purpose of the meeting addressed to each director and delivered by electronic transmission or by United States mail, postage prepaid. Such notice shall be deemed to be given when electronically transmitted or deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid.

D. Whenever a director shall be entitled to notice under any provision of these Bylaws, a written waiver thereof, signed by the person entitled to notice, or a waiver by electronic transmission by the person entitled to notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be deemed equivalent to notice. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except when a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the directors or members of a committee of directors need be specified in any waiver of notice.

E. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, 75% of the total number of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

F. Except as specifically set forth in these Bylaws, the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

G. Unless otherwise restricted by the Articles of Incorporation, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board of Directors or committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, or by electronic transmission, and the writing or writings or electronic transmission or transmissions are filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors or committee. Such filing shall be in paper form if the minutes are maintained in paper form and shall be in electronic form if the minutes are maintained in electronic form.

H. Unless otherwise restricted by the Articles of Incorporation, members of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof, may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or committee by means of conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting by use of such equipment shall constitute presence in person at such meeting.

Section 6.5. Executive Committee.

A. There shall be an Executive Committee composed of the President (who shall serve as the Chair), President-Elect, Vice President, and Immediate Past President, which shall, subject to the limitations set forth in these Bylaws, act on behalf of the Board of Directors between meetings of the Board of Directors.

B. All minutes of Executive Committee meetings shall be reported to all members of the Board of Directors within 48 hours of such meeting. C. In the event of concurrent vacancies in two of the three offices of President, President-Elect, and Vice President, the remaining officer shall hold the office of President for the remainder of the term, and the Board of Directors shall appoint eligible regular members in good standing to fill the vacancies in the offices of President-Elect and Vice President. No person appointed to fill any vacancy shall succeed to the office of President without being elected to that position.

D. In the event of concurrent vacancies in all three offices of President, President-Elect, and Vice President, the Board of Directors shall appoint eligible regular members in good standing to fill said vacancies. The Board of Directors may also hold a special election for the office of President.

E. In the event of a vacancy in the office of Immediate Past President, the President shall appoint another Past President who is in good standing to fill the unexpired term, subject to confirmation by the Board of Directors.

Section 6.7. Removal of Director or Officer. One or more directors or officers may be removed, with or without cause. Upon the request of members constituting at least 10% of the members in good standing eligible to vote for such director(s) or officer(s), as applicable, the Board of Directors shall establish a vote by ballot by mail, e-mail, or any other electronic means pursuant to which the members entitled to vote thereon are given the opportunity to vote for or against the removal of the director(s) or officer(s). The director(s) or officer(s) shall be removed from their position by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes cast provided that the number of members casting votes would constitute a quorum if such action had been taken at a meeting.

Such rules shall also provide rules and procedures for petitions. The President shall certify the election results and announce the vote count at the first Board of Directors meeting following the election.

B. The Executive Director may be contacted concerning campaign, nomination, and election procedures.

Section 7.3. Nominating Committee.

Petitions for officer positions or Regular At-Large Director positions must be signed by no fewer than 5% of the total number of Regular Members, and petitions for Associate At-Large Director shall be signed by no fewer 5% of the Associate Members. All members whose names appear on petitions must be members of IAAO as of January 1st of that year; and no state, or province, shall represent or account for more than 25% of the required total. The Executive Director shall certify the validity of any petition.

C. No individual shall be eligible to serve as an officer unless he or she has served at least three full years as a Regular At-Large Director and at least one year has passed since the end of his or her most recent term as a Regular At-Large Director.

Section 7.5. Campaigning.

C. Candidates for the associate member Board of Directors position shall accept direct cash contributions or personal service contributions only from associate members.

D. Each candidate shall file a campaign report on a form approved by the Board of Directors. The report shall be filed by all candidates by December 7th following the election. This report shall list all campaign contributions received and campaign expenditures made by the candidate or on the candidate's behalf of which the candidate is aware.

E. All campaign reports shall be reviewed by the Nominating Committee. If the Nominating Committee finds irregularities, the chair shall present such irregularities to the Ethics Committee. If the Ethics Committee confirms such irregularities, the Ethics Committee shall present such information to the Board of Directors, who shall require the candidate to correct the irregularity. If such irregularity is not corrected within 30 days of notification, the Board of Directors shall report such failure to the Ethics Committee for appropriate action.

F. Members doing IAAO business, such as IAAO instructor or committee member assignments, shall not engage in any political activity on behalf of themselves or other IAAO candidates when on an instructing assignment or when representing IAAO.

G. All campaign advertisements appearing in IAAO publications or electronic media shall clearly indicate what person or organization paid for and/or sponsored the advertisements.

Section 7.6. Election.

A. Balloting may be done by any means that provides for a secret ballot with security, an audit trail, no duplication of votes, and does not disenfranchise voters. The election ballot shall contain a space for the entering of the name of any member not preprinted on the ballot for election to each position on the ballot.

B. The Board of Directors shall contract with an independent tabulating company to count the ballots returned and certify the results of the election. The Board of Directors shall establish and maintain procedural rules for notification of election results.

C. If no candidate receives a plurality vote (i.e., there is a tie vote), the Executive Director shall order a recount of the ballots. If the recount confirms that no candidate received a plurality vote, the President shall call a special meeting of the Board of Directors. The names of the candidates shall be drawn by lot by the Executive Director or an appointed substitute and the name drawn shall be declared elected.

D. If the difference in the number of votes received by the two candidates receiving the most votes for the same position or office is less than 1% of the total votes cast for that position or office, the Executive Director shall order a recount of the ballots cast to be made.

E. Candidates wishing to challenge election results must transmit challenges, in writing, to the Executive Director so that the challenges are received no later than 10 working days following the notification of the election results to the candidates. A member who is under challenge shall not be sworn in until resolution of the challenge. A $500 cashier's or certified check, payable to the Association, shall accompany the written challenge. Any additional costs of recounting the ballots over the $500 amount shall be assessed against the challenger. If the challenge results in a new winner being declared for the position challenged, all money paid by the challenger shall be refunded.

F. Any member wishing to file a complaint for any alleged misconduct in the election proceedings shall do so in accordance with the rules and procedures of the Ethics Committee.

ARTICLE 8. OTHER AFFILIATIONS

Section 9.2. Task Forces. The Board of Directors may establish commissions, advisory boards, task forces and similar bodies (some of which may be labeled as committees, but shall not have the power to exercise the authority of the Board of Directors if they do not meet the requirements of Section 9.1.B) as it shall deem necessary to carry out the Association's programs or to advise the Board of Directors on a particular matter. The Board of Directors shall determine the scope of the task force, its organization, its responsibility, and its specific charge. No task force shall be established with a duration that will extend beyond the end of the fiscal year in which it is established.

The rules contained in the eleventh edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern this Association in all cases to which it is applicable and in which it is not inconsistent with these Bylaws and any special rules of order the Association may adopt. When a new edition of the parliamentary authority is published, the board may, by majority vote and after ensuring that they have familiarized themselves with the changes in the new version, update the edition reference in the Bylaws. Members shall be notified promptly after the change is made.

ARTICLE 12. DISSOLUTION

No motion regarding the dissolution of the Association shall be in order unless such motion contains the full text of a plan for dissolution and distribution of the assets of the Association in accordance with the IAAO Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and all applicable statutes. The full text of that plan shall have been sent to each member of the Board of Directors at least 30 days prior to any vote on such motion and shall have complied with all requirements for membership notice and comment in accordance with these Bylaws.

If the Association is dissolved, its assets will be distributed to properly designated education and/or charitable organizations through a formula established by the Board of Directors for dissolving the organization. In no case shall any assets revert to members or any other person, but shall be used for nonprofit, educational, or charitable purposes.

Section 13.1. Proposals.

A. Amendments may be proposed by the Board of Directors, provided that the full text of the proposed amendment shall be transmitted to the Executive Director and to each member of the Board of Directors at least 30 days prior to the vote. A 75% of the total Board of Directors members vote shall be required to send proposed bylaws amendments for membership vote.

B. Amendments may also be proposed by a petition of Regular Members, which must be signed by not less than 5% of the total number of Regular Members at the time of the proposal. Such petition must represent at least five states or provinces, and no state or province may account for more than 25% of the petitioning members. The petition or resolution shall be placed in the hands of the Executive Director, who shall verify that the amendment is in conformance with this section.

Section 13.2. Voting. The full text of the proposed amendment and the ballot for voting on the amendment shall be sent to all Regular Members no less than 30 days nor more than 60 days prior to the date on which ballots are to be returned. The proposed amendment must be approved by a majority of the Regular Members casting ballots provided that the number of Regular Members casting ballots would constitute a quorum if such action had been taken at a meeting.
